

SALT RHEUM IN WATER BLISTERS

On Hands, Red and Rough. Would Crack Open and Itch and Burn. Could Not Sleep.

HEALED BY CUTICURA SOAP AND OINTMENT

"I had salt rheum on my hands. It came in little water blisters which began to itch and burn and then I was treated but it did me no good. My hands were red and rough and would crack open and bleed and they would itch and burn so that I scratched them by scratching, causing disfigurement. I could not sleep and I could not do work of any kind."

"At last I sent for a sample of Cuticura Soap and Ointment. The sample did me much good that I bought one bar of Cuticura Soap and one box of Ointment, and in a short time I was perfectly healed." (Signed) Miss Lena M. Goodale, 120 Mt. Vernon Ave., Augusta, Me., Sept. 17, 1915.

EMBARGO ON ALL FREIGHT

ON THE HARTFORD LINE.

New York Piers Are Crowded With 1,000 Cases—Unable to Handle It.

Hartford, Conn., Jan. 5.—Owing to the freight congestion at the piers in New York, Hartford and New York Transportation company declared an embargo on all freight on the Hartford line. The company states that there are 1,000 cases of freight on New York piers and that it cannot do business until these are removed. No steamer will be unloaded at New York tomorrow. Freight will be received at the local dock, however.

VOLUNTARY SYSTEM NOT SATISFACTORY IN ENGLAND.

Field Marshal Kitchener Asks Parliament to Sanction Change.

London, Jan. 5, 5:16 p. m.—The full and fair trial has been given the voluntary system, declared Field Marshal Earl Kitchener, secretary of state for war, addressing the house of lords today.

"We are now asking parliament to sanction a change," he said, "as it has been proved that in the special circumstances of this unprecedented struggle the existing system without modification is not equal to meeting the army which is needed to secure victory."

DRINK HOT WATER BEFORE BREAKFAST

Says you really feel clean, sweet and fresh inside, and are seldom ill.

If you are accustomed to wake up with a coated tongue, foul breath or a dull, dizzy headache; or, if your meals sour and turn into gas, acids, you have a real surprise awaiting you.

Tomorrow morning, immediately upon arising, drink a glass of hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it. This is intended to first neutralize and then wash out of your stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels the waste, poisons, sour bile and indigestible waste, poisons, sour bile and indigestible waste, poisons, sour bile and indigestible waste.

Those subject to sick headaches, backache, bilious attacks, constipation or any form of stomach trouble, are advised to get a quarter point of limestone phosphate from the drug store and begin enjoying this morning inside-bath. It is said that men and women who use this limestone phosphate and keep it up daily. It is a splendid health measure for it is more important to keep clean and pure on the inside than on the outside, because the skin pores do not absorb impurities into the blood, causing disease, while the bowel pores do.

The principle of bathing inside is not new, as millions of people practice it. Just as hot water and soap cleanse, purify and freshen the skin, so hot water and a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate act on the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels. Limestone phosphate is an inexpensive white powder and almost tasteless.

S. D. Not W. S. Brown III.

The Bulletin, in this column, having picked William S. Brown away in bed and placed him under the care of a nurse, with a few more magic clicks of the typewriter now proceeds to restore him to his usual magnificent health, strength and virility.

W. S. Brown leased his theater this week to S. D. Brown and J. F. Lewis. In discussing the transaction with one of the interested parties, mention was made of the fact that Mr. Brown had since been taken seriously ill.

The inference was that William S. was the patient, but the unfortunate illness is that of S. D., who is a Providence man.

BOHEMIAN CLUB OFFICERS.

William F. Woodward Heads the List For Ensuing Year.

The following are the officers of the Bohemian club corporation for 1916: President, William Woodward; secretary, Ira A. Warren; treasurer, A. Putnam Woodward; excelsior committee, William M. Franklin, A. W. Williams, Harold F. Glendinning.

The annual reports of the secretary, treasurer and excelsior committee show that 1915 was a year of exceedingly satisfactory management. The cash reserve of the club was increased by more than $300.

A pronounced gain in membership. The club has quarters in the Bradley building equalled by few organizations in the kind of lowly at the corner of New York and Hartford streets.

Officers for this year is the same as for last with the exception that Mr. Glendinning will resign and run away from the executive committee by the removal to Meriden of W. L. Moran.

RESISTED AN OFFICER.

James Duffy Given 60 Days in Jail and Fine of $12.

James Duffy, colored, answered in the town court before Judge Woodward Wednesday morning to a charge of resisting Officer V. H. Wetherell.

Duffy was charged with resisting on Sunday, April 18, 1915, by stating that abuse by the officer goaded him into taking the action. The defendant, who acted as his own counsel, further set up as a defense that the officer, after applying contemptuous epithets to him, swung first at him with his fist, then at the defendant, dodged the blow and then struck back hitting the officer and engaging him in a struggle.

Duffy then went on to say that he slipped out of his coat and ran away from the officer and Robert Saunders, who had been called to assist, as he was being taken to the police station.

Duffy got out of town and did not return here until about a week ago. He was charged in the complaint with having been intoxicated, breach of the peace and resisting an officer.

Officer Wetherell, called as a witness, denied Duffy's charges, told of seeing Duffy sprawled out on steps leading to tenements on the upper floor of one of the Johnson buildings opposite the Attawapung hotel; he had gone across the street and ordered Duffy to pull his legs off the sidewalk so persons could get by without stepping into the street and claimed that Duffy struck at him when he went to put his hand on his shoulder to get him to move. The officer denied that he had abused Duffy.

Duffy, sworn as a witness, said he had not been drunk, denied that he was the third step smoking his pipe; that his feet were not on the sidewalk, and that he had interfered with the passage of no one and that Officer Wetherell told him to move, he said he would and started to go home. Then the trouble started, he claimed, relating his version of what took place.

Robert Saunders, who sat on the steps with Duffy, corroborated the defendant's statements on the subject. He said that Duffy was sober, was making no disturbance and was not blocking the walk. Charles White, another witness, seemed very hazy in his memory as to what took place and showed evidence of not caring to say much one way or the other, although admitting that he had been an eye witness of the affair.

In his testimony Officer Wetherell said that he had since understood that Saunders deliberately released his hold of Duffy while the latter was being taken to the station so that Duffy could get away, but Saunders, who was not easier for him than for Officer Wetherell to hold Duffy, who is a husky.

Judge Woodward found Duffy not

RESOLUTIONS CALLING FOR MILITARY PREPAREDNESS

Passed at Meeting of Advisory Board of American Defense Society.

New York, Jan. 5.—Resolutions calling for military preparedness to meet a national emergency which will arise in the event of a war between the United States and Germany, were passed today at the first meeting of the advisory board of the American Defense Society.

The resolutions, which were adopted by a vote of twelve to three, were presented by the board of the American Defense Society, which was organized last week.

The first resolution adopted calls for the immediate construction of forty-eight dreadnoughts with the necessary complementary smaller craft. A second resolution demands a standing army of 200,000 men, to be supported by a civilian soldiery whose service would be compulsory.

At the close of the meeting, Philip Roosevelt stated:

"We are preparing for an emergency that will arise during the next twelve or thirteen months." Colonel Roosevelt refused to make any comment, saying that the meeting was entirely private.

WHAT ITALY WAS OFFERED TO MAKE PEACE

Paris Petit Journal Prints Alleged Concessions Advanced by Austria.

Paris, Jan. 5, 5:15 a. m.—Germany, in the name of Austria, offered to make peace with Italy at the time when the latter prepared to sign the London pact of the allied nations against separate action in making peace, says the Petit Journal.

Austria, declares the newspaper, proposed to cede to Italy the Italian Trentino and the region now occupied by the Italian forces on the Isonzo, and on the Carso plateau, with Gorizia and Grado to the south. Albania was to continue autonomous, Italy retaining a veto with the hint that, in addition concessions are declared to have been promised in Asia Minor and the free and peaceable enjoyment of Italy of her African colonies, Tripoli, Massowah and Somaliland guaranteed.

These conditions, says the Petit Journal, were unhesitatingly rejected, and the engagement against a separate peace was signed.

SIR JOHN SIMON OPPOSES COMPULSORY SERVICE BILL.

Begs the Government and House to Consider the Difficulties It Will Create.

London, Jan. 5, 4:45 p. m.—Sir John Simon, whose resignation as home secretary was announced yesterday, made a speech in the house of commons today, in which he expressed regret that he had found it necessary to sever his relations with Premier Asquith, he pleaded for rejection of the compulsory service bill.

He said it must be repellant to his late chief to recall that among the most effusive of his present supporters were the very men who for years had made it their trade to accuse him without reason of breaking faith. None could say, he said
